

PMP REAL TIME REPORTING

---

Working Together for Success

A PROBLEM OF DEFINITION

DEFINING THE PROBLEM – FINDING THE SOLUTION

- What is 'Real Time'
  - The Disconnect Between Point of Sale and Pharmacy Systems
  - Understanding how Corporations View PMPs
  - Standards and Workflows
  - Error Reporting
  - Development Costs and Timelines
  - Buy In
  - Commitment and Focus
  - Flexibility Through Understanding to Build Consensus
-

FACTORS

DRIVING FACTORS

- Emergency Room Doctors
  - Critical Care Physicians Including Surgeons
  - Drug Courts
  - Leveraging Technology
  - Faster Responses to Patient History Requests
  - Immediate Feedback to Pharmacy on Record Errors
  - Sever Resources
  - Data Integrity
  - Feedback
-

BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS

RELATIONSHIPS

- Pharmaceutical Software Industry
  - Pharmaceutical Industry
  - Chain Pharmacies
  - Mail Order Pharmacies
  - Independent Pharmacies
  - Doctors
  - Law Enforcement
  - Regulatory Agencies
  - Health Agencies
  - Special Interest Groups
-

MAKING IT ALL WORK

- New ASAP Standard
- New NDCPD Standard
- New Web Service
- New Reporting Manual
- Modified SFTP Transfer Method
- New Technologies Deployed
- New Web Portal
- New Legislation
- Listening, Learning, Observing and Understanding
- Testing for Success

OUTCOMES

PROGRESS

- Jan. 1, 2012 – All Pharmacies Reporting in Real Time
  - As of May 10, 2011 – About 300 Pharmacies Already Reporting in Real Time
  - Open Communication Enabled Between All Stakeholders
  - Oklahoma PMP Asks for Open and Frank Feedback So It ‘CAN LEARN AND GROW’
  - Doctors Excited – PMP Use Rises From 30,000 to 45,000 Queries a Month
  - For the First Quarter of 2011, Only 5 People Exceed the 10/10 Threshold
  - Hospitals Begin Reporting Non-Overdose Prescription Drug Events
  - 46% of Patients Who Were Treated for Overdoses Were Trying to Commit Suicide
  - Total Prescriptions Begin to Fall While the Number of Doses Rise
  - Unsolicited Reports are Authorized
-

THE NEXT STAGE – BUSINESS INTELLIGENCE

